

Edifying Stories for the whole family!

Suddenly, a torrential rain accompanied by thunder and lightning fell on the village. The attackers were all dispersed and the rain extinguished the fire in five minutes.

The Christians that gathered were wonderfully delivered and their hearts overflowed with gratitude to God.

Incredible, and yet very true...

365 histoires.com

Jean-Louis Gaillard

The whole village talked about it for years. A group of about forty Christians held a meeting in a house.

A bunch of villagers, meeting at the bistro, finally had realized what had happened. Drunk with alcohol, they immediately took over the house. Shattered door, windows guarded by stout men armed with clubs, no occupant had a chance to escape.

The house was burned. The dryness of summer made the fire spread and the thatched roof flapped like paper. The Christians, at first, were very afraid, the children screamed.

But the leader of the group of believers who presided over the assembly, standing up, said: "My brothers, we will pray. Jesus is the same yesterday and today and forever. He wants to protect us. They all knelt down and prayed fervently. The Lord intervened sovereignly by a miracle.

Planche à colorier

