

The real murderer was safe at home, but he felt so guilty. So after 2 days, he ran to the police station and said, "Can you please release my innocent brother, I am the real murderer. The policeman replied, "Unfortunately it is too late, know that your brother has already been hanged. And there he saw him dead. He knelt down, cried, and said to himself: "My little brother has paid for my crime, he has died in my place.

And he remembered the last word of his dead brother for him: "But do not forget to keep my shirt always clean away from the madness of this world. And thus the true murderer repented and became a Christian.

Jean-Louis Gaillard

Two brothers each took different directions in their lives. The elder was eager for all things in this world, and he quickly took a wrong direction. On the other hand, his brother received the gospel in a public meeting while still a child. He served the Lord Jesus with joy and determination.

One day the elder brother was drinking in a bar with one of his friends, and as they drank a lot, they began to argue. The boy jumped on his friend and began to stab him. After a while, he realized that his friend was not breathing, he was already dead. The boy decided to run away with his shirt covered with blood. Those who had watched the fight started running after him.

The older brother ran to his little brother's house. He knocked and said, "Can you hide me please? I killed a person, and people are chasing me." The brother replied,

"But where am I going to hide you in my studio?" There is only one room. His older brother urged him: "There is no time to lose, find any dea to hide me!" After a moment of reflection, his brother suggested: "Give me your shirt and take mine, but do not forget to keep my shirt always clean, far from the madness of this world. »

They exchanged their shirts, and then as soon as the Christian went out and opened the door, people started to hit him and he was badly injured, to the point that he was taken to the police station..

From there the case was brought before the court, and the man, convicted of murder, was sentenced to death.
