

Our lives are the only Bible that many men and women will read during their time on this earth. This story is a terrifying example of how those around us watch us as Christians, and how they will test us as such!

Be alert ! And remember, you are an ambassador for Jesus when you claim to be a Christian. Watch over your thoughts; they become words. Watch over your words; they become actions. Watch over your actions; they become habits. Watch over your habits, they become character traits. Watch over your character; it will determine your destiny!

Jean-Louis Gaillard

A few years ago, a preacher accepted an offer to go and serve God in Houston, Texas. Shortly after arriving, he took the bus into town...

Having settled into his seat, he realized that the driver had accidentally given him 40 cents extra change. He thought to himself, "You better give back those 40 cents, it would be wrong to keep them." Then he thought again, "Oh, who cares? It's only 40 cents after all, it's hardly anything! In any case, the bus company is making monster profits every year, so what difference will 40 cents make? Just consider it as a blessing from God and shut up! »

When he got to his st, as he got off the bus, he hesitated a moment then handed the driver the 40 cents, saying, "You gave me too much change." The driver smiled at him and said, "Are you the new pastor in town?" "Yes," he replied. "Well, I've been thinking about going to church for a long time now. I just wanted to see what you would do if I gave you too much change ... so see you next Sunday then!"

As he got off the bus, the preacher grabbed hold of the first lamppost so as not to fall over and said, "Oh my God! I was on the verge of selling your Son for 40 cents ...!"
