

365Stories

05. The Hands

05.The Hands

A basketball in my hands costs 5 €.

In the hands of Michael Jordan, It is worth about $ 33 million dollars!

Everything depends on the hands that are holding it.

A pen in my hands is worth about € 10.

A pen in the hands of a famous writer make a best-seller worth millions

Everything depends on the hands that are holding it.

A tennis racket in my hands is worth nothing. In the hands of Roger Federer it is a winning formula!

Everything depends on the hands that are holding it.

A stick in my hand I will help me to hunt a wild animal.

In the hands of Moses, it will do wonders, and will part the sea in two.

Everything depends on the hands that are holding it.

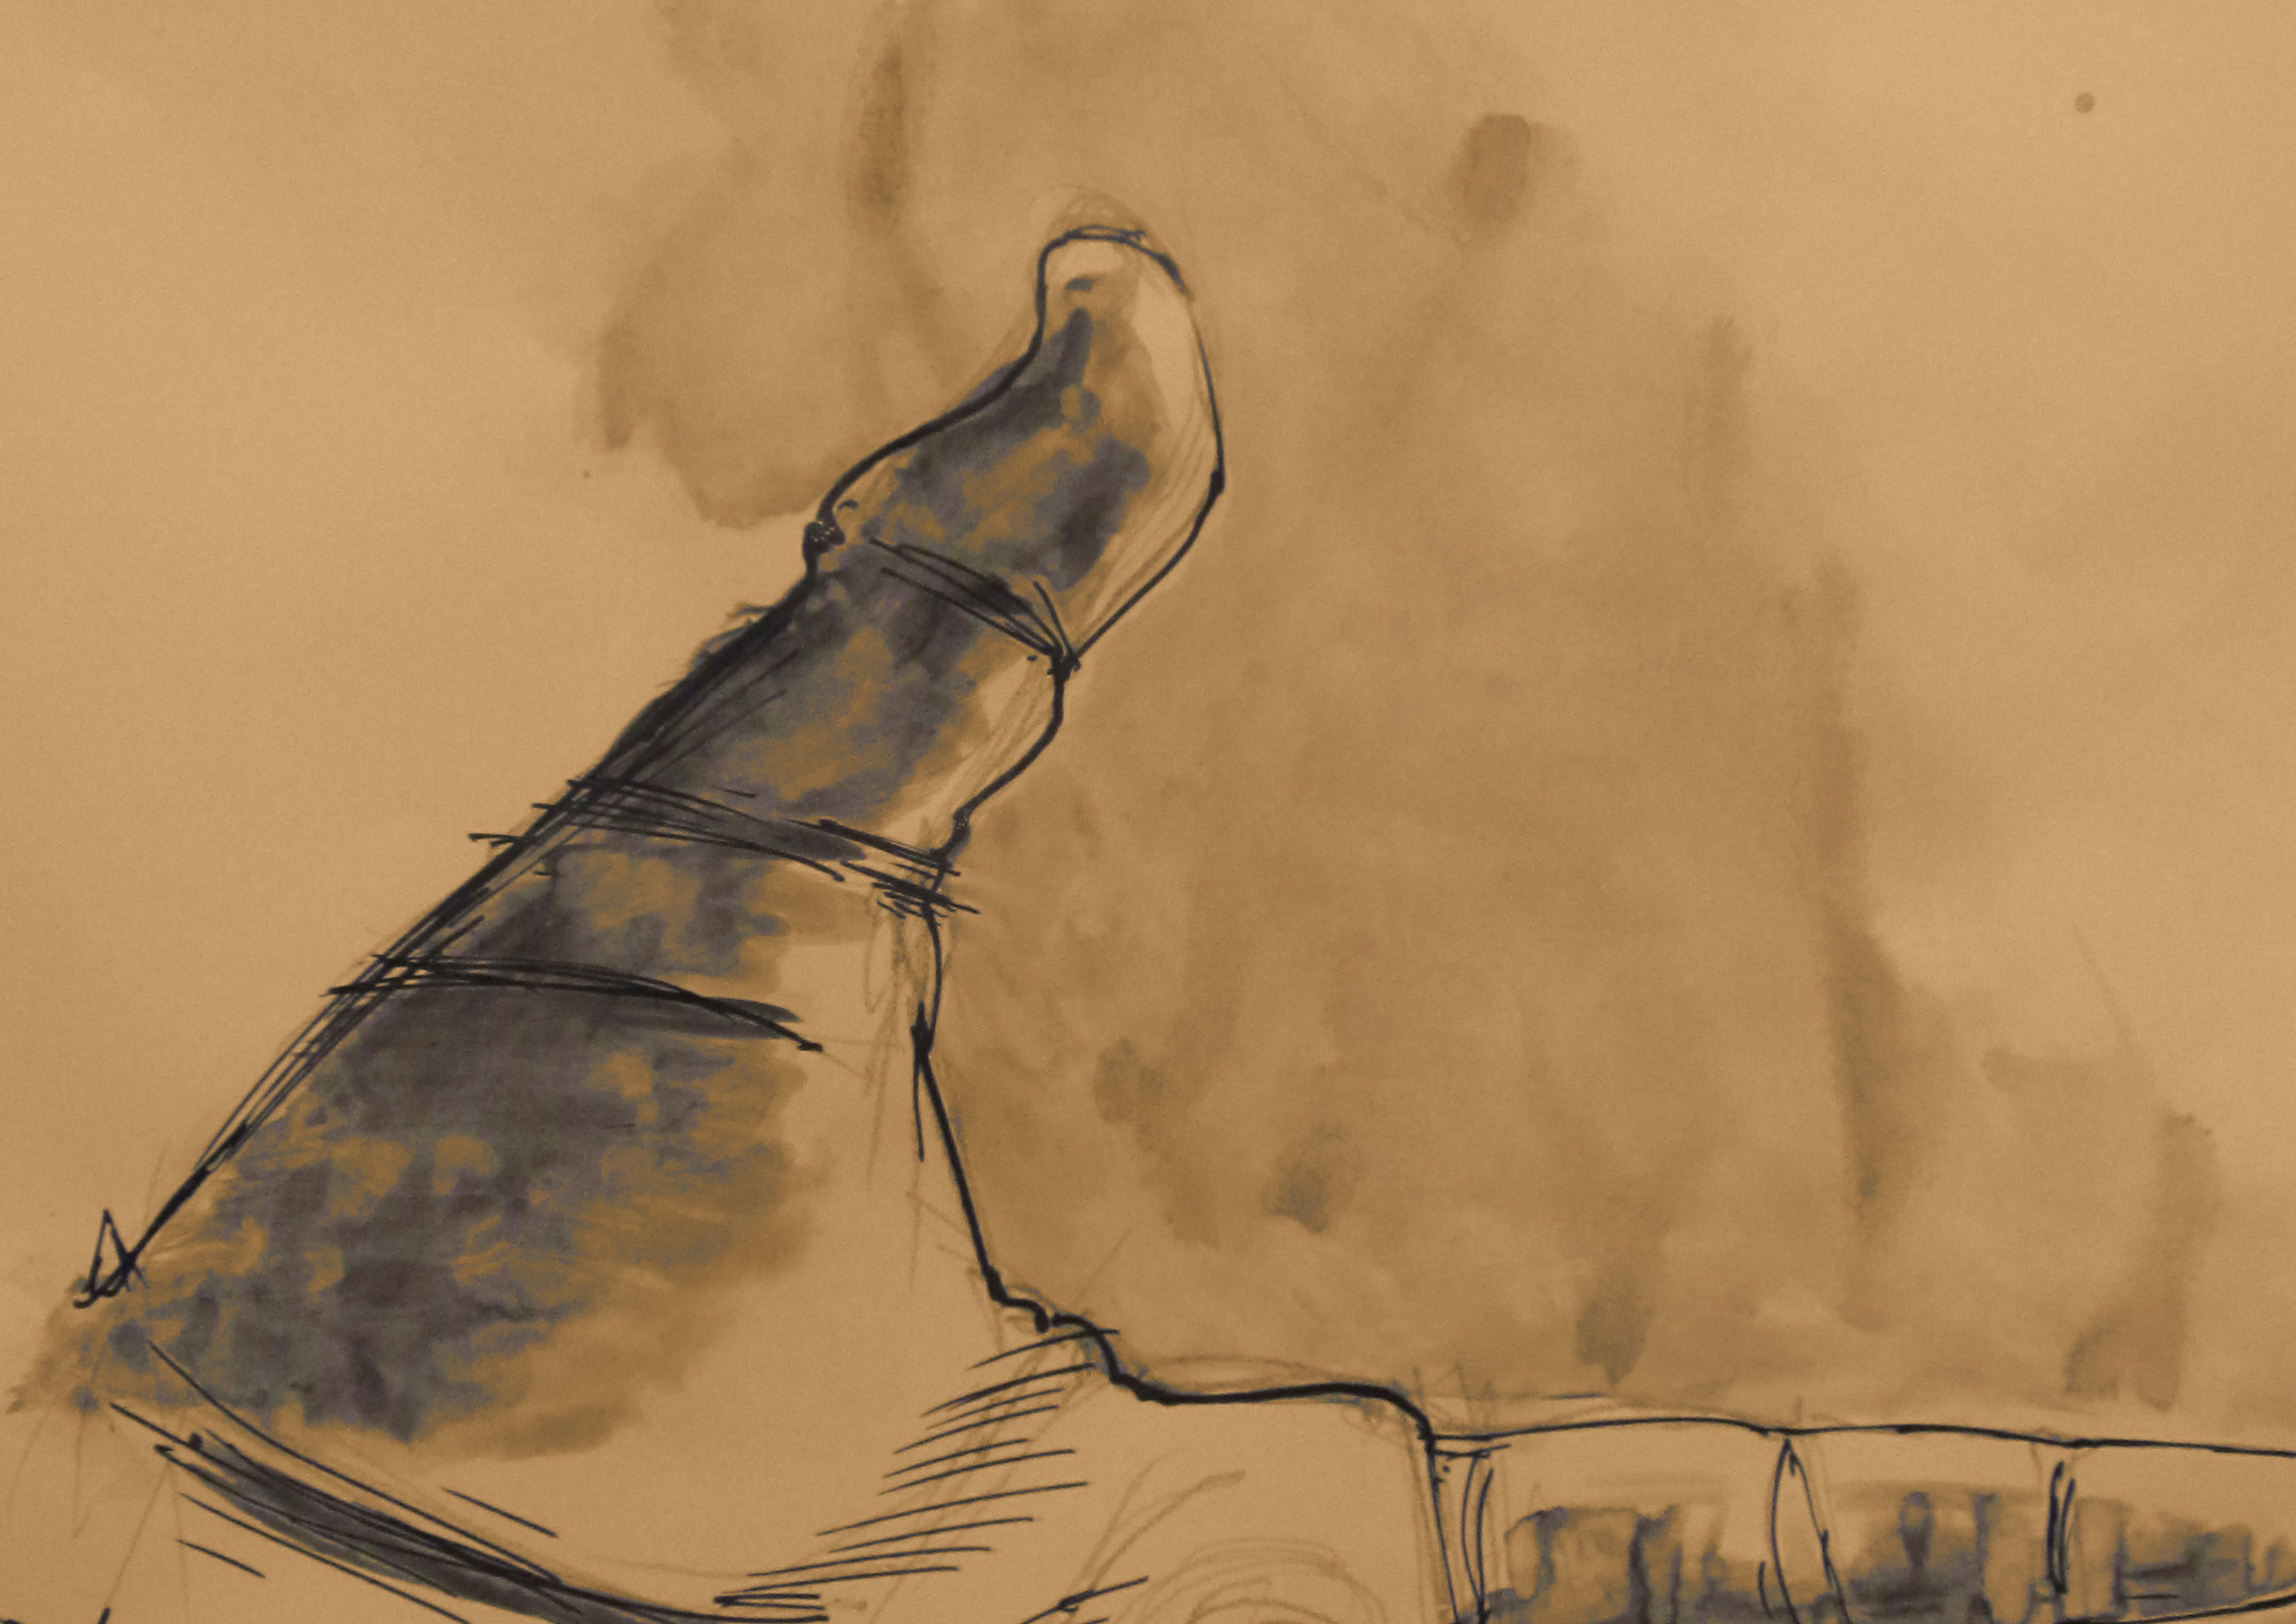

A slingshot in my hands is a child's toy.
In the hands of David it is a formidable weapon.
Everything depends on the hands that are holding it.

Two small fish and five pieces of bread in my hand will maybe feed a family?
In the hands of God thousands will eat and be satisfied!

Nails in my hands would be used to make a bench or chair.

Nails in the hands of Jesus Christ make the way of salvation for the entire world!
Everything depends on the hands in which they were found.

As you can see now, everything depends on the hands that handle the work!

So put your concerns, your fears, your obstacles, your family, your relationships .Your life in God's hands because

Everything depends on the hands that hold all of these things

Find a story about one day: www.365histoires.com