

365Stories 30. Beer changed into furniture!

30. Beer changed into furniture!

A ungergroung miner converted during the revivla in Wales in 1904 , one of his old drinking companions with whom he spent all his money in bars

Meets with him-“Is it true that you found religion ?

Did you enter the convent ? – Non, non, simply I have become converted.

I have been born again ! I met Jesus Christ !

-So you believe all that is told in the Bible ?

-Yes ! and with all my heart !

-And you believe in the miracles that they tell ?

You are not going to make me believe that Jesus changed water into wine ! At the wedding in Cana ?

-Yes, it is the truth.

Here, come to my house, I want to show you something.

As soon as they arrived, the unbeliever marveled :
-But things have really changed in your home since the last time ! All this furniture does it belong to you ? It was all empty before...-Listen ! You do not want to believe that Jesus did change the water into wine at Cana. But, you can see : here, in my home, He changed my beers into furniture !
Have you met Him ? Has He changed your life ?
It is the best thing that could ever happen to you !
Jesus has come on the earth, to die in our place on the cross so that we can become free from our passions from our sins so that we may know the true freedom in Him He loves you and is waiting for you, accept Him in your life ! He will change everything !