109. Capitulation behind the door !

Since his wife reads the Bible and has christian friends,
George doesn't leave her !

And yet he had no reason to complain of her.

But the more he was brutal and unjust

The more Mathilde showed kindness and patience.

On only one point, she would not make any concessions
Her going to a Christian Assembly was for her a necessity !

One day, George gets mad :

--If ever you return to the meeting of hypocrites I will come to get you and will give you and will give you a correction that you will remember all your life !

Mathilde knew that he was a man that kept his word !
But that didn't keep her from, a few days later, To take advantage of her husbands absence to goto the prayer meeting.

George came home earlier than planned, found the house empty. Took a big cane and went to the meeting place. He went through the first door and stopped
--Someone is stalking, he said to himself, I will wait until he is finished.

But here are the words that he distinctively heard :
--And we pray, Lord, for the husband of our sister Mathilde.

You see that this man is not happy. May he know your great love...

So this is what they do here in the meeting of hypocrites : they were praying for him, and with such fervor !

He left quietly and went back to his house.
When Mathilde, trembling, arrived home, she found George on his knees. He also had met the Lord !
Il avait lui aussi rencontré le Seigneur.
Proverbs 8 verse 17 tells us :
Those who diligently seek me will find me !
