

365Stories

53. A Colombian girl.

53. A Colombian girl.

A young Colombian girl received a New Testament in her school. She was interested in it, but one day her father surprised her reading it and he made her stop her reading saying that ' 'It was full of lies and strange things". But the young girl continued to read until the day that her father.

Arrived at the house without warning, and found her with her new testament, he grabbed. It from her hand and put it into his pocket. The father who was a mining engineer

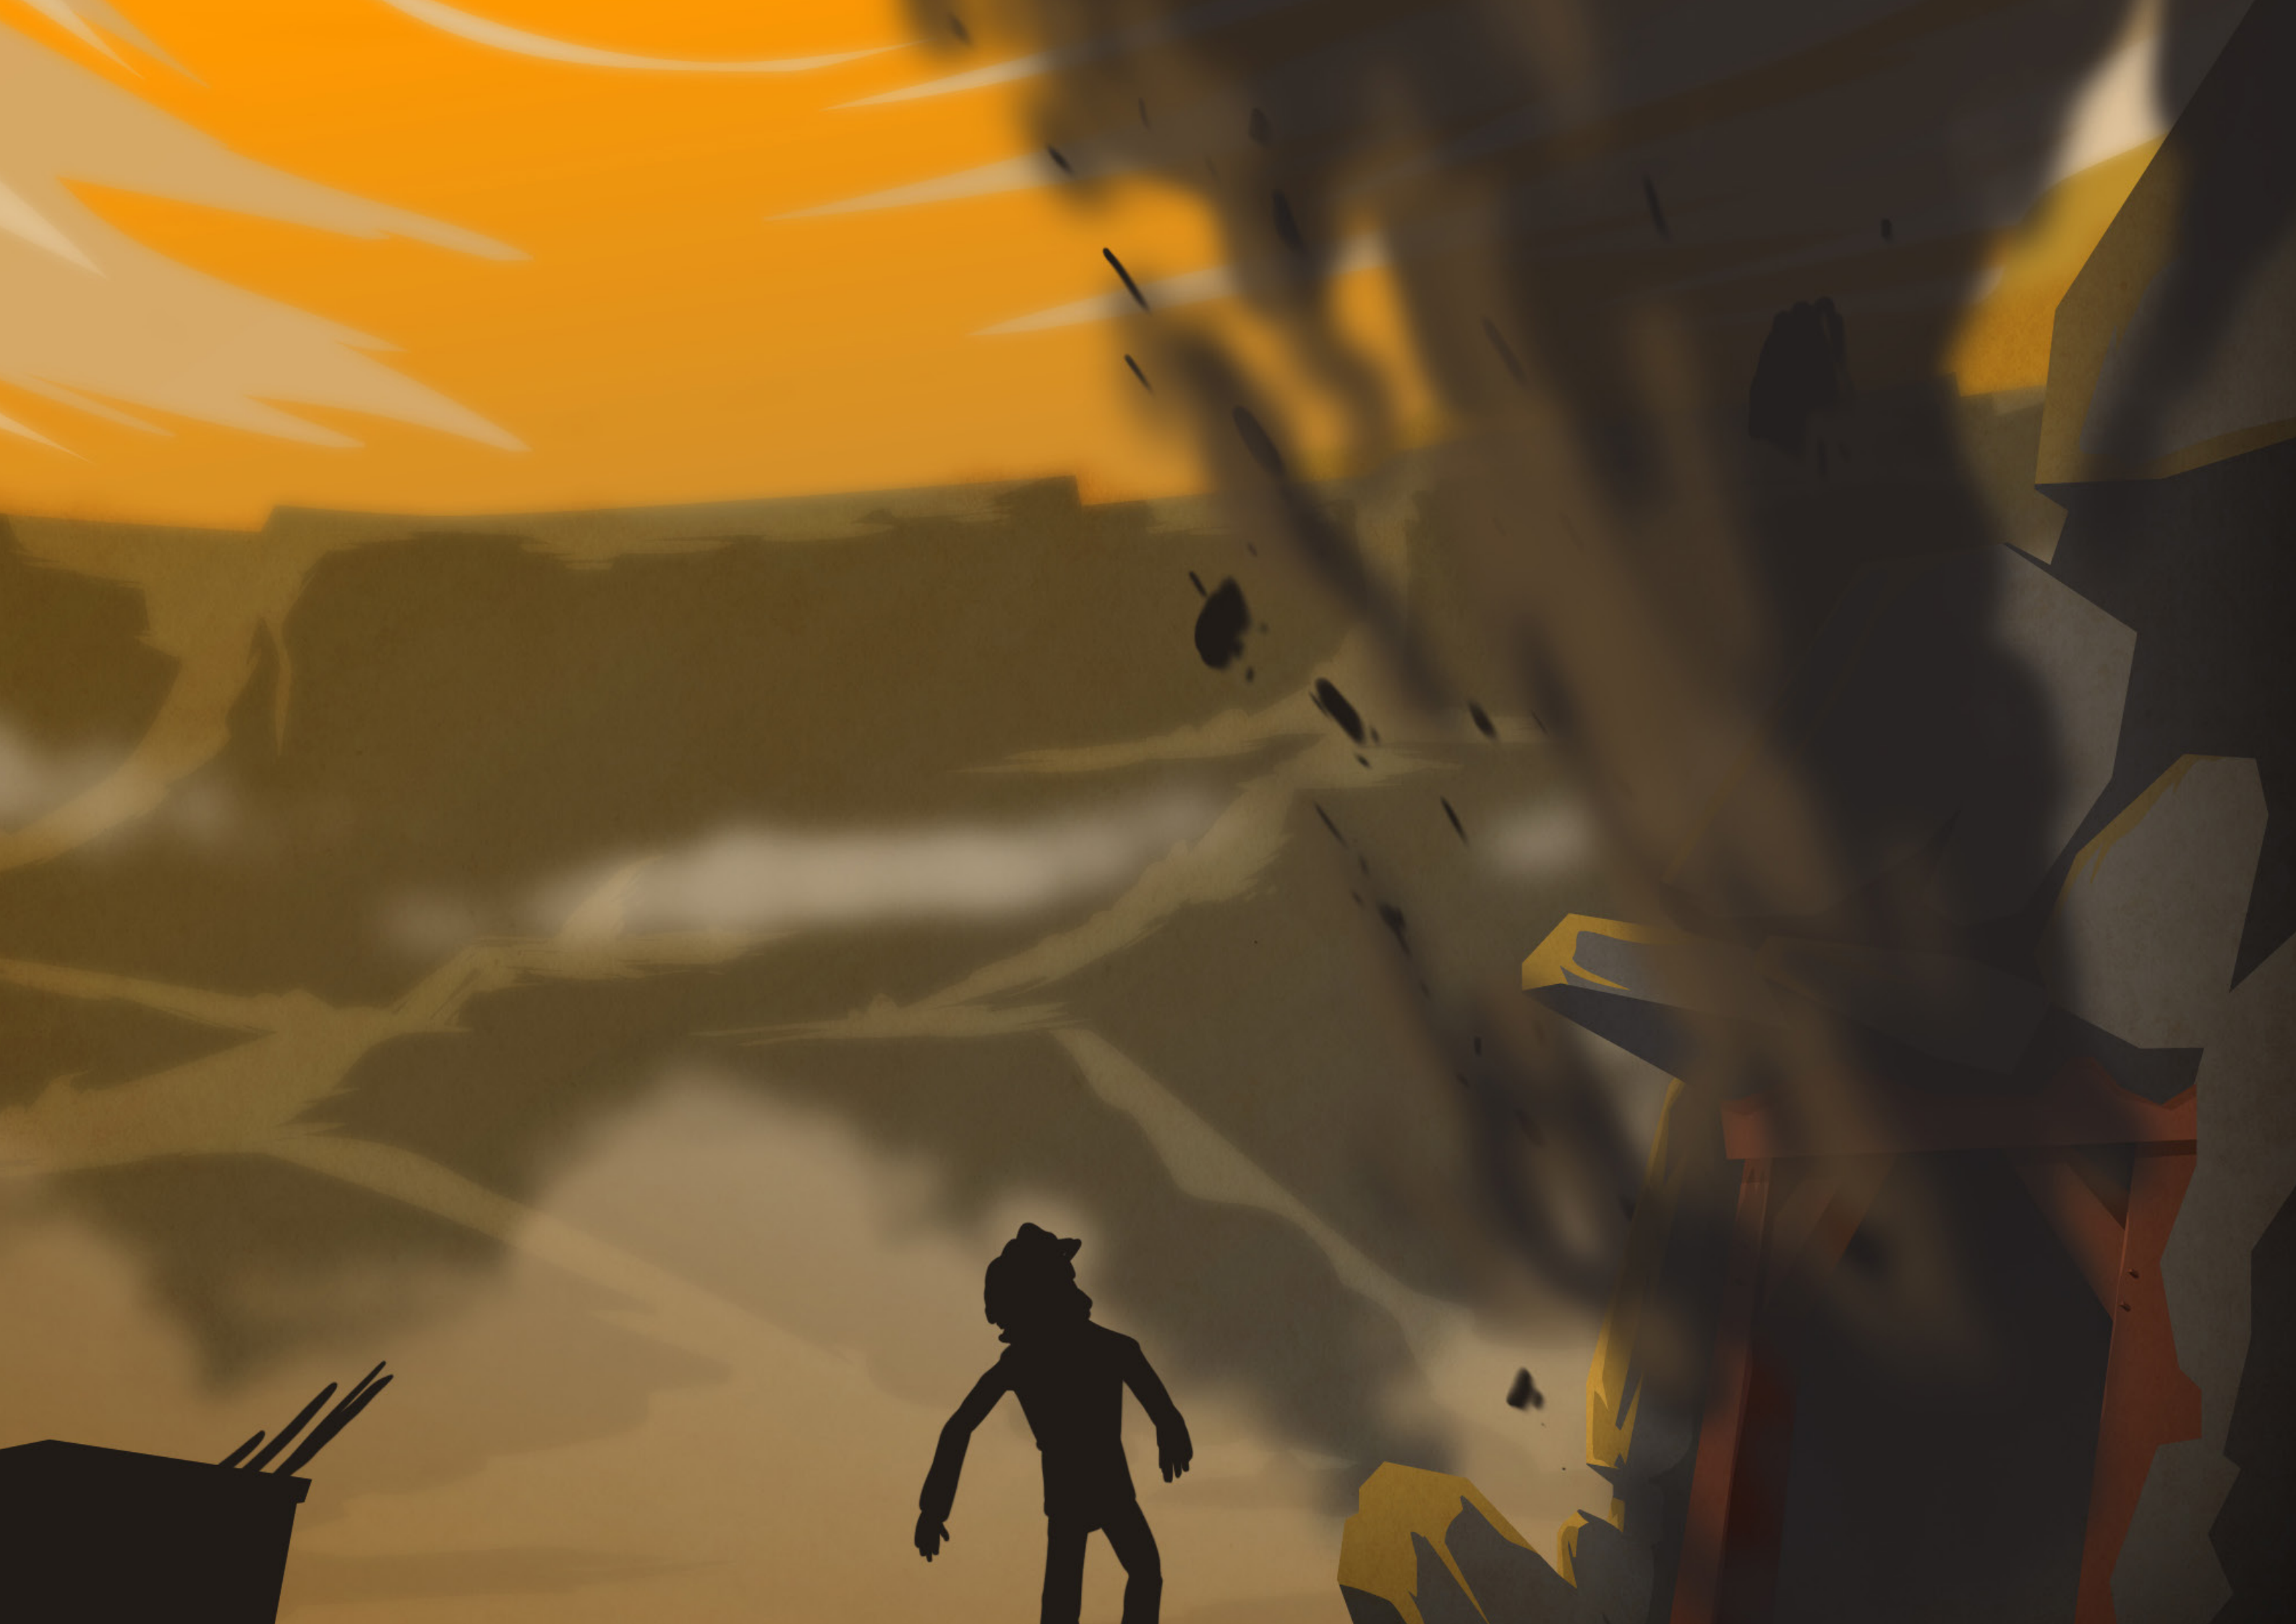

Returned to his place of work.

Several hours later, the sirens resounded in all the mining community, Indicating a problem in the mine.
Indicating a problem in the mine.

The father was caught in the mine.

The rescuers worked 5 days to finally find the men. But it was too late.

All the 31 men died including the father of the young girl.

Curiously, when the men found the last, he was holding the New Testament

In his hands, joined in prayer, when they opened the cover to the New Testament, they saw a note: "To my daughter, continue to read the New Testament, it is the Truth. I will see you again one day in heaven."

On the back of the page, the father signed his promise after praying his prayer of repentance. But this is not the end of the story. When they looked at the next page, the other 30 workers had signed their names as well. And you dear listeners, have you signed this letter, this engagement that the you give your life to the Lord ?

Do not hesitate, do not wait, it's today is the day of salvation, it is today that you can meet your Lord.