

365 Stories

59. When God orders...

59. When GOD orders, even the devil obeys !

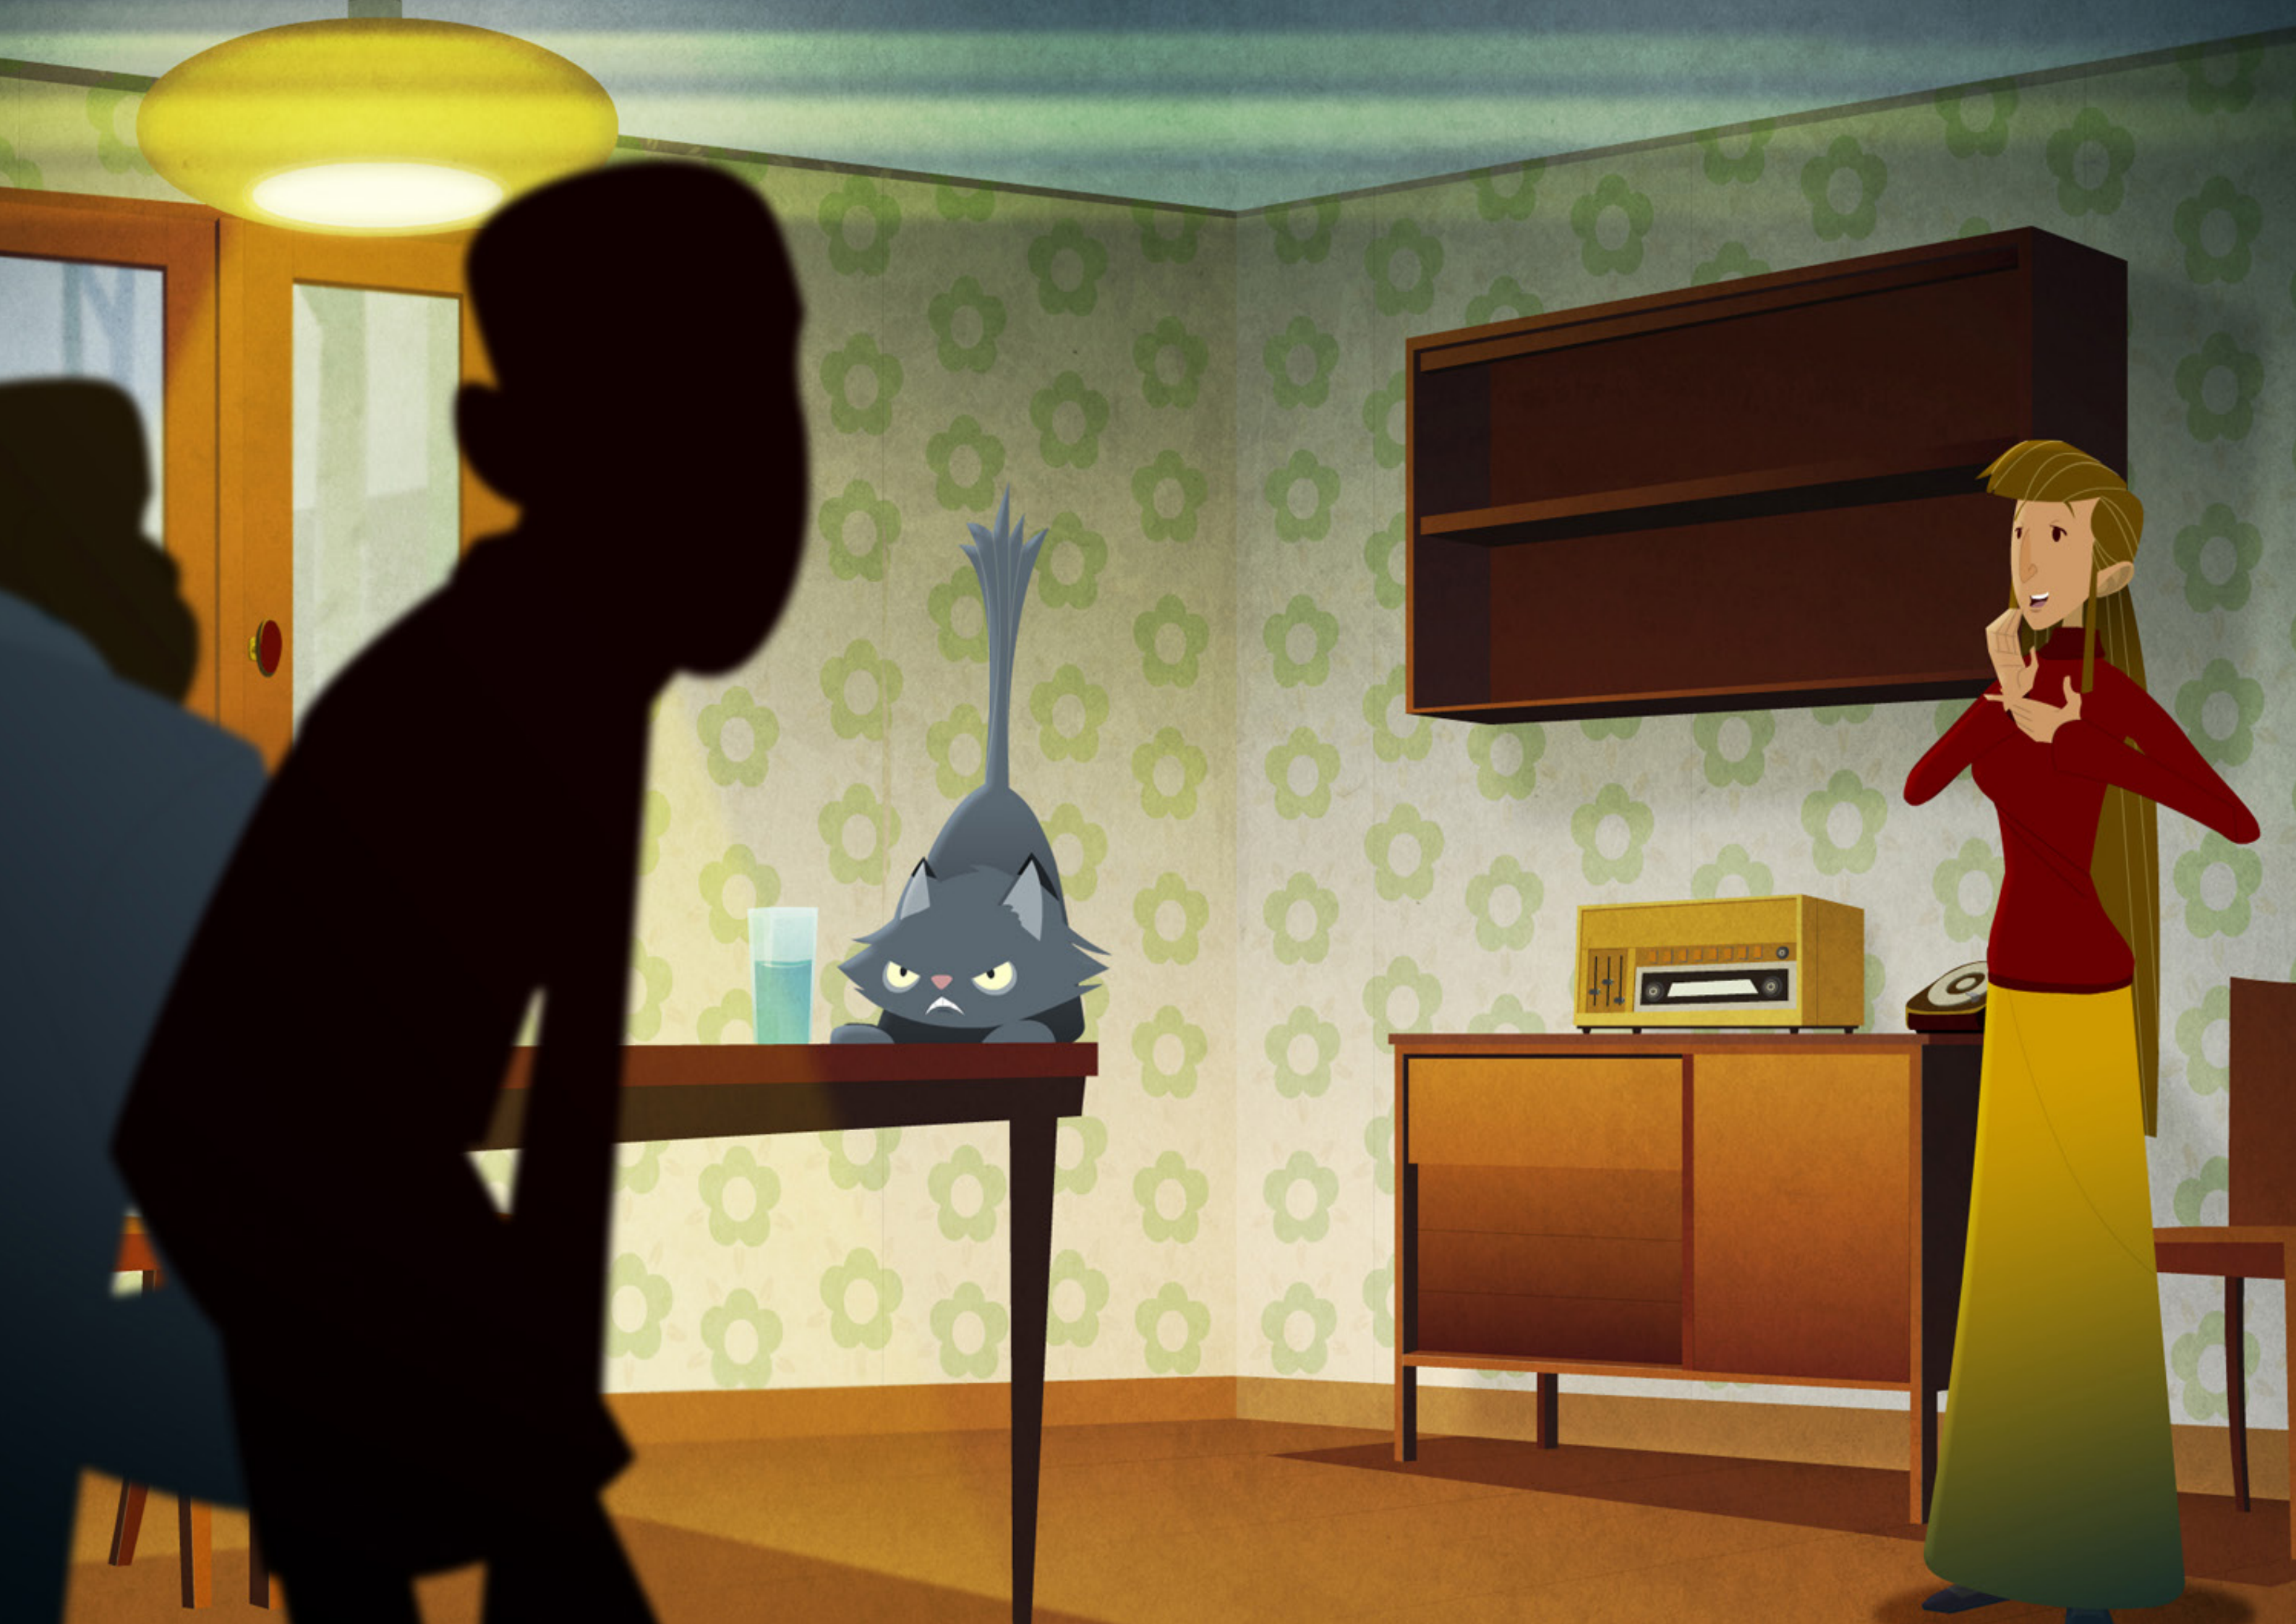

A very poor woman called a Christian radio program to ask for help. Her husband was without work since 3 years and it was harder and harder for her to even have one meal each day for her 6 children.

A witch doctor who listened to the broadcast at that moment decided to play a dirty trick. He was able to procure the address of the woman and call her employees to give them a bad call. And he said to them : "If this woman asks who sent you these bags, you tell her that it was the devil."

Arriving at the womans home, he was recieved with joy and faith.

She took the bags and began to arrange the groceries. The employes, confronted with what the witch doctor had said, asked the woman : "Do you want to know who gave you these groceries ?" The woman, in simplicity, said : "I do not need to know who gave these groceries."

When GOD ordains, even the devil obeys"

Moral : My friend do not worry about anything, forget the necessary and the need in which you may find at this moment : God provides always to the needs of His children ! If you too think that when God is with you even your enemies work for your good!