

365 Stories 83. The Savior by David Livingstone !

83. The Savior by David Livingstone !

In the heart of Africa, David Livingstone meets caravanes of slaves chained one to another that a merchant had taken them to the coast to sell them. The missionary shuddered with revolt in face of this horrible traffic, not being able to oppose.

Seeing one day in the sad line a man more pitiful than the others. He questioned the merchant :
How much do you want for this one ?
I will buy him.
Deal done, they unbound the poor man who remained there, persuaded that he had simply changed masters

_ But no, said Livingstone, you are free, I bought you.

Then he cried out :

_I want to stay with you, and to serve you freely,
because you have taken pity on me.

That which Livingstone did for the slave, Jesus Christ has done for us all : He has paid our redemption with his blood.

This is why we serve Him, not in a spirit of service, but freely, by love and gratitude." Here is the promise found in the Epistle of Paul to the Galatians chapter 4 verse 7.

'Therefore you are no longer a slave but a son, and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ"

In the book of Revelation chapter 5 verse 9, it is written concerning Jesus

"for thou wast slain and didst purchase for God with thy blood men from every tribe and tongue and people and nation".

Let it be known to all how who are still slaves of sin. That they can be redeemed free of their vain way of life, by the sacrifice of Jesus Christ at the cross, in order to live a life of real freedom free from sin, and to receive eternal life !